Mr. Nate Delin,

Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Nate:

Our friend, Mr. Joe Slifka, has neglected to answer my repeated phone calls and he is leaving the entire responsibility to me, when he made the deal in the first place. He cannot get away with this.

I am enclosing herewith copy of a telegram which I sent him yesterday.

In connection with your own offer to me, I have nothing in mind yet but I would like you to please write me to the effect that you will sell your 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ % interest for \$60,000, payable within 90 days. This will give me some room in which to try and breathe.

Unfortunately, the whole situation has seemed to work out so that everything falls on my head, including the stupidity I told you about when I was in Rome.

With best wishes to Molly, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

LMB:DC
Encl.

P.S. I have drafted a short letter for you to send me. If you find it O.K., please sign and return it to me.
